DOCKETED BY

IN THE MATTER OF THE FORMAL
COMPLAINT AGAINST QWEST
CORPORATION d/b/a CENTURYLINK
BY LORIANNE OCHMANSKI AND
INTEL LOCK - TUCSON LOCKSMITH

DOCKET T-01051B-17-0346
COMPLAINANT'S REPSONSE TO QWEST CORPORATION
d/b/a CENTURYLINK'S
MOTION FOR A TIME
EXTENSION AND NOTICE OF LETTER FILING

Lorianne ("Lori) Ochmanski with Intel Lock – Tucson Locksmith requests for the Arizona Corporation Commission to require a timely answer from Counsel for Qwest Corporation d/b/a Centurylink and to deny the motion and request by Centurylink’s Counsel for a time extension and another copy of the Formal Complaint. A legible copy of this Complaint was served to Counsel on February 9, 2018.

Centurylink’s delays and unwillingness to fix the phone and account are typical and illegal and cause even more undue disruption in my physical and financial, mental, emotional, and spiritual life, and I am forced to live each day with undue stress and debilitating anxiety. Personal and business losses grow each day and at this point even my inalienable rights under the U.S. Constitution are being violated. The losses resulting from these problems have had an extremely adverse effect on my health. Other intangible aspects of my life are suffering extensively as well.

I also ask the Commission to consider this section of my response as a motion that Counsel will correct the gross misspelling of my company name in their filings. The company’s name is not ‘Inter’ Lock and it is not ‘Intel Lock.’

Respectfully submitted on this 27th day of February 2018.

Sincerely,

Intel Lock – Tucson Locksmith
Lori Ochmanski, Owner
