DOCKET # E-01345A-18-0002

WITNESS SUMMARY

Warren Woodward (“Woodward”), Intervenor in this proceeding and customer of Arizona Public Service Company (“APS”), hereby submits his Witness Summary.

Woodward affirms his prepared direct and rebuttal testimony in this case which may be summarized as follows: 1.) By APS's own numbers, which show a third of residential customers paying a disproportionate amount of the rate increase granted by Arizona Corporation Commission (“ACC”) Decision 76295, the rate increase is neither just nor reasonable. 2.) This proceeding is tainted by judicial bias due to the Administrative Law Judge allowing participation by ACC Staff well past the deadline to intervene, and because ACC Staff signed the rate case in question's Settlement Agreement that bound signatories to “support and defend” it. 3.) Because all APS's witnesses have based their arguments on an attempted redefinition of “bill impact” (to suit their company's purpose), their testimony is worthless. 4.) APS witnesses' testimony is also worthless because they have confused the ratemaking process with the ratemaking result. This case is not about the process. It concerns the inequitable result of the process.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED this 17th day of September, 2018.
